

You Are Invited

Please join us for our opening ceremony for the traveling exhibit Silent Books: Final Destination Lampedusa. This international traveling exhibit features over 100 of the most notable wordless picture books in the world, and is part of the children's library that is been created by IBBY Italia for Lampedusa, Italy. The Lampedusa library is to serve the many refugee children – and local families – arriving from Africa and the Middle East.

MILLENNIUM LIBRARY, 251 Donald Street
Children's Services, Main Floor

Tuesday, February 9:

6:00-6:20 pm: Opening Ceremony

6:30-7:00 pm: Mariella Bertelli, IBBY Canada (International Board of Books for Young People), speaks on the history of the Lampedusa library and how wordless picture books can be enjoyed by all, regardless of language.
Mona Gray Program Room.

The exhibit is open for viewing February 9 – March 12, 2015 in Children's Services, Millennium Library. Accompanying the exhibit are two activities for children of any age – Write a Postcard (to the children of Lampedusa) and Create your own Silent Book (make and take your own silent book using the supplies provided). Activities are available during the library's open hours for the duration of the exhibit.

